On June 22, 2004, Rosalina Marie Tudela Gabutin was sentenced by the Honorable Alex R. Munson, for Bank Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344. She was ordered to serve 16 months imprisonment followed by 60 months of supervised release with conditions that she not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without approval of the U.S. Probation Office; provide the U.S. Probation Office access to any requested financial information; refrain from the use of any and all alcoholic beverages; participate in substance abuse treatment and testing; participate in a mental health treatment program; perform 400 hours of community service; inform any future employer of her conviction; pay $55,482.94 restitution; and pay a $100 special assessment fee. Mrs. Gabutin was released to the District of Guam from federal custody on September 7, 2005. Jurisdiction of the case remains with the District Court of the Northern Marianas Islands.

On January 30, 2007, Mrs. Gabutin submitted a travel request to the Probation Office asking that she be authorized to visit Saipan from February 15, 2007 to February 19, 2007. The trip was intended for Mrs. Gabutin to make arrangements for her home in Dandan to be rented with all rental income to be applied toward restitution. Although approved by the Court, Mrs. Gabutin did not travel as requested in order to remain home to address medical issues for her nine year old daughter.

On March 13, 2007, Mrs. Gabutin submitted a travel request to the Probation Office asking that she be authorized to travel to California from March 24, 2007 to April 24, 2007. On this trip, Mrs. Gabutin and her husband will accompany their daughter for a medical assessment and possibly treatment. Medical documents have been submitted verifying the referral to California.
